

U.S. Department of State

Bureau of Cyberspace and Digital Policy (CDP)

CAREER FAIR

Join our Cyberspace and Digital
Diplomacy Community

OPEN ROLES:

- Foreign Affairs Officer, GS-11
- Foreign Affairs Officer, GS-12
- Foreign Affairs Officer, GS-13

About Us

Bureau of Cyberspace
and Digital Policy (CDP)

OUR MISSION

We lead the Department of State's work on cyberspace and digital diplomacy to encourage responsible behavior and policies that protect the integrity and security of the Internet, serve U.S. interests, promote competitiveness, and uphold democratic values.

CDP addresses the national security challenges, economic opportunities, and values considerations presented by cyberspace, digital technologies, and digital policy to promote fair and transparent norms that support our values.

OUR VALUES

We value in ourselves and look for others who demonstrate:

- Respect: Varied & Equitable
- Integrity: Transparent & Principled
- Innovation: Bold & Adaptable
- Teamwork: Collaborative & Inclusive
- Excellence: Knowledgeable & Expert

“Our work is not a new lens on the game – it is the game.”

- Ambassador at Large, Nathaniel Fick

OUR ORGANIZATION AT A GLANCE

Our organization is made up of the following units:

Front Office	International Information & Communications Policy (ICP)	International Cyberspace Security (ICS)	Coordinator for Digital Freedom
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strategic Planning & Communications (SPC) • Executive Office (EX) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bilateral and Regional Affairs (BA) • Multilateral Affairs (MA) • Technology & Security Policy (TS) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Global Policy, Plans, & Negotiations (GPPN) • International Engagement & Capacity Building (IECB) • Threat Management & Operational Coordination (TMOC)

Opportunities

Bureau of Cyberspace
and Digital Policy (CDP)

“Our task is to put forth and carry out a compelling vision for how to use technology in a way that serves our people, protects our interests and upholds democracy.”

– Secretary Antony Blinken

Join our team

Foreign Affairs Officer (GS-11 to GS-13)

A Foreign Affairs Officer will be responsible for developing and implementing U.S. policy that promotes an open, interoperable, secure, reliable internet, a stable cyber space, including formulating, coordinating, and implementing cyber diplomatic and policy efforts.

Level of experience may determine which positions are available to you. For more information about available roles and duties, please visit our Virtual Career Booth.*

Qualifications

Education

Bachelor's or graduate degree from an accredited college or university in international law, international relations, political science, economics, history, sociology, geography, social or cultural anthropology, law, statistics, or humanities

Eligibility for Clearance

These positions require a Secret and/or Top-Secret clearance. If you do not have a clearance at this time, you must be eligible to receive one.

Provide your Resume and Transcript

A resume and school transcript must be submitted with each application to be considered.

Benefits

Telework

Available as determined by agency policy

Location

Washington, D.C.

Salary

- GS-11: $78,591 - $102,165 per year
- GS-12: $94,199 - $122,459 per year
- GS-13: $112,015 - $145,617 per year

Travel

~25% domestic and overseas travel possible

HOW TO APPLY

Please apply by sending your resume and transcript(s) to CDP_Careers@state.gov.

Privacy Act Statement

Authorities: The information solicited via this website is sought pursuant to 22 U.S.C. 2651a (State Department Basic Authorities Act).

Purpose: The information solicited via this website will be used to identify qualified applicants for vacant positions with the U.S. Department of State's, Bureau of Cyberspace and Digital Policy.

Routine Uses: The information solicited via this website will be shared with employees within the U.S. Department of State's, Bureau of Cyberspace and Digital Policy involved in the bureau's hiring process. More information on the Routine Uses for the system can be found in the System of Records Notice STATE-31, Human Resources Records.

Disclosure: Providing this information is voluntary. Failure to provide the information requested through this website may result in your inability to be considered for employment with the U.S. Department of State's, Bureau of Cyberspace and Digital Policy.